MARC E. GOLD OF MANKO, GOLD, KATCHER & FOX, LLP APPOINTED TO THE BOARD OF THE PARTNERSHIP FOR THE DELAWARE ESTUARY

Philadelphia, PA (September 3, 2008) – Marc E. Gold, a founding partner of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox, LLP (MGKF), an environmental, energy and land use law firm in Bala Cynwyd, Pa., was recently appointed to the Board of Directors of the Partnership for the Delaware Estuary. He will serve a three-year term with the Partnership, a nonprofit National Estuary Program that is focused on preserving and improving conditions in the Delaware Estuary, a resource shared by Delaware, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

As related to his role as a member of the Partnership board, Gold has extensive experience on issues related to regulatory compliance and environmental permitting, particularly in the areas of site remediation and water pollution control. He has lectured and written on a variety of environmental law topics including compliance auditing, Brownfield redevelopment and water quality. Gold has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America since 1989 and is also listed in International Corporate Law's Guide to Environmental Law Experts and Chambers America's Leading Business Lawyers.

Gold graduated from Villanova University School of Law and earned his bachelor's degree from American University. He resides in Ardmore, Pa.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, and land use law and litigation. It represents clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic Region and on a national basis. MGKF's offices are located at 401 City Avenue, Suite 500, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania and 535 Route 38, Suite 145A, Cherry Hill, New Jersey.
